Notes about the Author: My name is Richie Summerville (Clarion University of PA - Class of 1990) and this is the ninth year that I have calculated the RPI for Division One women's basketball and seventh for the WBCA. I work for ESPN Radio 1310 in Virginia Beach, Virginia where I am the producer for the Old Dominion Lady Monarchs Radio Broadcasts. Great thanks go to Lady Monarchs head coach Wendy Larry who gave me the inspiration to start this and I hope those of you viewing these pages find the information useful.

Sincerely
Richie Summerville

WBCA/Summerville RPI

as of December 14, 2003

A few notes for today.....Oh, and by the way there are now just less than 3 months until selection Sunday. Just thought I'd throw that in.

There are 13 undefeated teams left now that one month of the season has passed. The list includes Arkansas State, Connecticut, De Paul, Idaho, Marshall, Miami (Fla.), Minnesota, Oklahoma, Southern Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas Tech, Vanderbilt, and Virginia Tech.

There are now two teams that the RPI views as undefeated but have one loss versus non division one schools. One I noted before is Clemson. The other is Birmingham-Southern who lost this last week to Loyola of Louisiana. There are a number of other schools that are in the opposite position that the RPI views as winless but have won their only game (or games) against non D1 foes.

As of Sunday The Big XII is still the only conference with every team over .500.

Some of the other conferences that are close to that feat.

- ACC – 8 of the 9 schools are over .500 with Virginia at 3-3.
- Big Ten – 10 of the 11 are over .500 with Michigan a game under at 5-6.
- Big East – 12 of the 14 are over .500
- Conference USA – 11 of the 14 are over .500.
- SEC – 11 of the 12 are at or over .500.

One note on Michigan. On the standings pages you will notice the record for the last ten games is there for each school. A feature usually noted at the end of the season but something I leave there so it can be seen during the year. Michigan and Savannah State are the only schools to pass the 10 game mark so far this year.

There are some games coming up this week that will have some RPI impact. There appears to be a very good group of teams meeting at LSU for a tournament mid-week. LSU plays Kent State in one game. The other features a one loss Richmond team (number 6 this week in the RPI) versus undefeated Arkansas State. There is a matchup of unbeaten on the 17th when Tennessee visits De Paul. On the 19th there are three good games with UCSB at Purdue, Villanova at Temple, and Texas Tech at Washington. There are some others I may have missed but these are the ones that jumped off the page at me.

Home teams have won 67.2% of their games so far this year.

Take care,
Richie Summerville

WINNING PCT. (Part One) = 25% of RPI [Games played against non-division-one teams are excluded.]

SCHEDULE STRENGTH or OPPONENTS WINNING PCT. (Part Two) = 50% of RPI

OPPONENTS SCHEDULE STRENGTH or OPP/OPP WINNING PCT. (Part Three) = 25% of RPI.

This version of the RPI makes no adjustment for deducting a team's record from its schedule strength.

The premise here is that any team is inescapably a part of its opponents' cumulative schedules. Not all RPI calculations respect this premise

The Conference RPI is calculated using all division one games except those played against independents. This ranking is used to compare conferences. Since independents, by their own circumstances, are not part of a conference and not officially combined as a group their games cannot be used. Games played by conference members that are not counted in the league standings are not used in this calculation. The complete non-conference record is shown above. The Conference RPI Average is the average of all RPI's within a given conference. This ranking is provided to show a contrast between that and the Conference RPI.
