

What are teams, institutions and conferences doing to participate in civic engagement this season?

NCAA Division I

- 8-second violation.
- Anti-racism season.
- Apparel.
  - Armband.
  - Black Lives Matter bag tags.
  - Black Lives Matter masks.
  - Message on back of uniforms.
  - Patches on warm-ups.
  - Shooting shirts with message.
  - Socks.
  - Uniform patches.
- Black Lives Matter pins.
- Court markings.
- Digital.
  - Education via social media.
  - Honorary videos during pre-game.
  - Intro video.
  - Social Justice video.
- Educating fans and supporter of injustice and equality.
- Educational and growth sessions with team regarding racial injustice.
- Engaging in activities on campus.
- Lead peaceful protests on campus.
- Omit playing the National Anthem.
- PA Announcement after National Anthem is played.
- Participate in educational and informational sessions.
- Participate in protests.
- Participating in conference initiatives.
- Personalize "Action Plan."
- Protest during anthem (coaches and student-athletes).
  - Fists in air.
  - Kneel.
  - Linked arms as teams.
  - Stand.
  - Staying in locker room.
- Public statement.
- Unity game.

What are teams, institutions and conferences doing to participate in civic engagement this season?

NCAA Division II

- Black Lives Matter game.
- Black Lives Matter patches.
- Black Lives Matter stickers with school logo.
- End racism t-shirts.
- Kneeling.
- Linking arms.
- Not playing the National Anthem.
- Replacing pink game with Equality and Inclusion game.
- Selling t-shirts to raise money for Black Lives Matter cause.
- Staying in locker room.
- Uniform patches.

NCAA Division III

- Black Lives Matter game.
- Coaches wearing “I Stand for Justice” pins.
- Commemorating life of Breonna Taylor (hashtag that honors her and brings attention to injustices).
- Conference messaging before National Anthem like sportsmanship statement.
- Kneeling.
- Linking arms during National Anthem.
- Shirts.
  - Black Lives Matter.
  - Names on shirts.
  - With social justice message.
- Slogan for season.
- Unified headband or shoelace.
- Uniform patches.

NAIA

- Black warm-up shirts.
- Kneeling.
- Linked arms.
- Shooting shirts that say “Equality.”
- Uniform patches.

High School

- Kneeling.
- Warm-up t-shirts.

What are teams, institutions and conferences doing to participate in civic engagement this season?

Conferences

Many conferences are discussing participating in civic engagement and their National Anthem protocols.

- Mentoring programs.
- Providing patches for teams.
- Reading initiatives with community.
- Unity statement prior to introductions.

Other

- Play “Lift Every Voice and Sing” (Black National Anthem) prior to games.