

WBCA Convention 2017
Rob Slopek
Stevenson University Associate Head Coach
How to be a Great Assistant Coach

- I. You're Current Job is your "Dream" Job
 - a. Understanding this allows you to do the best job you can
 - b. Grass isn't always greener
 - c. Make the best of what you have
- II. Making Your Head Coach's Job Easier
 - a. Find out what they need to have removed from their plate
 - b. Don't be afraid to ask
 - c. Don't be afraid to delegate
 - d. Step out of your comfort zone
- III. Know Your Role
 - a. What is expected of you?
 - b. Once you complete your role, then ask for more.
 - c. Be humbled
 - i. New jobs = different roles
- IV. Your Performance is Noticed by Others
 - a. The better you do your job, the more people notice
 - b. The people who notice you doing a good job help you get where you want to go
 - c. Everyone is looking at your performance
 - i. Administration
 - ii. Other coaches
 - iii. Recruits
- V. Get Involved
 - a. What can you do on campus?
 - b. What can you do for the WBCA?
 - c. What can you do for your conference?
- VI. Always be Prepared
 - a. Where do you want to get to?
 - i. What does it take to get there?
 - ii. What jobs do you need to know?
 - b. Take notes
 - c. Ask questions
- VII. Learn
 - a. Find something to learn each off-season
 - b. Keep growing