"Each year it is a delight to see the talented young athletes who have been selected as the NCAA Division III Kodak/WBCA All–America Honorable Mentions," said Beth Bass, WBCA Chief Executive Officer. "We are honored to remain a long–time partner with Kodak to recognize these outstanding athletes for their contribution to the sport of women's basketball."

Founded in 1981, the WBCA promotes women's basketball by unifying coaches at all levels to develop a reputable identity for the sport and to foster and promote the development of the game as an amateur sport for women and girls. For additional information about the WBCA, please visit its Web site at www.wbca.org.

Kodak recognizes the accomplishments of young athletes and the positive recognition they bring to their school by displaying their talents on the basketball floor. "For the past 29 years, Kodak has been proud to partner with the WBCA in honoring the best women's collegiate players as Kodak/WBCA All–Americans," said Bud Denker, Director & VP Brand & Market Development. "We acknowledge the accomplishments of these student–athletes and the positive recognition they bring to their schools, their communities and the game."
