Georgia Tech's Deja Foster Awarded Charles T. Stoner Law Scholarship

ATLANTA – Deja Foster of the Georgia Institute of Technology is the recipient of the 2011 Charles T. Stoner Law Scholarship Award, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) announced today.

The $1,000 Charles T. Stoner Law Scholarship Award, named for and presented by Stoner, a former legal consultant for the WBCA, is presented annually to one female collegiate basketball player who intends to pursue a career in law.

"What a pleasure to present to Deja Foster the Charles T. Stoner Law Scholarship Award," said WBCA CEO Beth Bass. "As the NCAA says, most student-athletes will go pro in something other than sports, and we hope Deja will have a great career in law."

Foster, a 6-foot senior guard, is the Yellow Jackets' second-leading rebounder with a 6.2 rebound-per-game average. Named to the 2010 ACC All-Academic Team for work on and off the court, she is a six-time Georgia Tech Dean's List honoree and is majoring in Management.

Foster, who is from Memphis, Tenn., is an active member of Georgia Tech's Student-Athlete Advisory Board.

Foster will be formally recognized during the WBCA Awards Show, which will held at 6 p.m. Monday, April 4, in the Indiana Convention Center's Sagamore Ballroom. This event is part of the WBCA National Convention and is held in conjunction with the NCAA® Women's Final Four® in Indianapolis.

About the WBCA

Founded in 1981, the WBCA promotes women's basketball by unifying coaches at all levels to develop a reputable identity for the sport and to foster and promote the development of the game in all of its aspects as a sport for women and girls.
