

HIGH SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

July 2019 | Volume 3, Issue 4

Fall Learning

The WBCA Coaches' Classroom: Regional Whiteboard Series presented by FastModel Sports will be stopping in four locations in September and October: Seattle, Washington, New Orleans, Louisiana, Los Angeles, California and Durham, North Carolina.

Open to all coaches and staffs (members and non-members) at every level of women's and girls' basketball, these clinics are outstanding opportunities to learn from some of the top coaches in the country and network with colleagues from your area.

Register Now!

Player Development Videos

Over the past season, the WBCA has compiled a library of National Leaders Skill Drills videos from the statistical leaders in collegiate women's basketball.

This video library offers tips for young, high-school players on how to improve at shooting, free throws, rebounding and much more. Email the WBCA (join@wbca.org) if you have a topic suggestion!

Click the image below for a video with Megan Gustafson, formerly of the University of Iowa, showcasing her favorite drills to improve in the post.

Save the Date 2020 WBCA Convention New Orleans, Louisiana

Registration for the 2020 WBCA Convention will open this fall. Make sure to receive the $199 rate before online registration closes in the spring.

Click here for #WBCA20 registration information.

Andy Zihlman of Bishop Lynch High School (Texas), speaks during the Behind 1,000 Wins panel at the 2019 WBCA Convention. Click image for the full video.

Coming soon to WBCA.org

The WBCA Open Practice Registry is getting a makeover! Not only will the registry allow high school coaches to find collegiate practices in their area, it will also include a list of camps and clinics to assist coaches in learning and staying involved year-round.

The WBCA Open Practice, Camp and Clinic Registry is tentatively scheduled to release in the Fall of 2019. If you have any questions, email membership@wbca.org.

Online at WBCA.org

Learn year-round with the WBCA Coaching Library, featuring more than 800 videos and audio files. Videos from the 2019 WBCA Convention are online now.

What's Trending Now?

Maximizing Skill Development in the Offseason – Nikki Fargas

Tune in as Nikki Fargas, head coach at Louisiana State University, demonstrates drills to help your offseason skill development. View full video here.

Developing Your Team's Leadership – Jamy Bechler

Listen as Jamy Bechler discusses how to effectively cultivate and develop leadership on your team. View full video here.

MaxPreps/WBCA Player of the Week presented by Wilson Sporting Goods

For the fifth season in a row, the WBCA and MaxPreps will continue to honor high school girls basketball players around the country. The WBCA and MaxPreps will select one player from each of nine regions and winners will be selected based upon stats submitted to MaxPreps by their coaches. Weekly winners will be recognized with special badges on their MaxPreps career profile pages and on the WBCA digital platforms. View more information here.

MAXPREPS

Wilson

Join or renew your WBCA membership today!

With more than 4,000 members, the WBCA is the premier professional association for the community of women's and girls' basketball coaches. Build your career in coaching, network with colleagues, and grow our sport. We will be here with you every step of your coaching journey.

Get started at WBCA.org/join.

